Innovative-Eco-Honest Living

The First Annual Kid-Parent Humanistic Summer Workshop Application Form

1. Proposed objective:

In recent years the earth has increased its temperature, causing global warming. Also, natural disasters are occurring frequently. We are running this Kid-Parent Summer Workshop, through games, to teach children to cherish the earth's resources. We emphasise working together to take care of the earth, looking after the environment and respecting living beings. We are hoping that through inviting parents to participate, we can create a physically, mentally, and psychologically harmonious society.

2. Themes:

1. Practice green living: ease carbon dioxide footprints, save energy and care for our earth
2. Promote Vegetarian Passport Program: respect all living beings, cultivate compassion, maintain good thoughts, and practice vegetarianism to improve world ecology

3. Date and time: July 2, 2011 Saturday 9:30AM to 3:30PM

4. Location: 630 Poirier St. Coquitlam, Dogwood Pavilion, MacDonald-Cartier Room

Who can participate? From 5 to 12 years old

Space available: 50 children maximum (100 participants including parents)

Cost: $30 per pair/ a child with a parent. Additional child or parent from the same family will only cost $10 extra each. Fee includes teaching material, handouts, snacks, vegetarian lunch, gift and Completion Certificate.

5. Application phone numbers: 604 782-9203, 604 945-5052, 778 355-3637

6. Workshop Outline:

1. Hands-on eco crafts, vegetarian meal creation, storytelling with reflection, fun group activities, and parent seminar.
2. Parent-Child bonding through interactive activities
3. Course content based on Tzu Chi's humanistic concept
4. Workshop emphasises daily life practices to achieve desired outcomes

Note:

1. Students are expected to arrive and leave with parents
2. Registration deadline June 30th 2011. Waiting list available. No refund if absent.
